

CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadline: 1 June 2019

Conference website: www.ieem.org

The IEEE Conference on Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management (IEEM) is a leading international forum for the exchange, sharing and dissemination of the latest development in research and practice in all fields related to industrial engineering and engineering management. Held annually since 2007, all submitted papers are subjected to rigorous reviews to reach an acceptance decision. The conference has been hosted by leading universities in Asia. The average attendance is 500 participants from 50 countries at every meeting.

This year, IEEM2019 will be held at the Parisian in Macau, China. While the meeting facilities here are world class, the city has much more to offer than that. Macau has earned itself the nickname "Las Vegas of Asia".

A Portuguese territory until 1999, it reflects a mix of cultural influences that manifests itself in all aspects of life. Come check it out yourself!
